Sun Bros. Circus.

Wednesday, May 1, was a gala day in Marion, especially for the young folks, the middle aged folks and the old folks. Sun Bros. Circus was here in all its glory and the tents were well filled at both performances. This circus has appeared here two seasons before and its performance this time was high toned and up to the standard. One thing was missed very much, and that was the street parade, which the company has abandond for several reasons of
